

UPDATE

Our second Fashion Show at The Edinburgh Woollen Mills was a great success and raised £290. Our four models were outstanding and can't wait for the next show!

Crisis at Christmas!

Havant Passion Play members joined together with our friends from Churches together to sing Carols outside St Faith's Church. In half an hour a wonderful £129.82 was raised for the homeless at Christmas. Our thanks to all who took part.

Christmas Angels

The same morning as we were to sing outside St Faiths the ladies from the Sewing Bee put out 85 knitted angels in Havant. Numbers of angels were down this year as some had been given to the children in schools and churches.

The spot the angel competition in Emsworth was great fun, enjoyed by the children and the shop keepers. Many have already asked to take part again next year. Winners came from both Emsworth Primary school and St James'. Well done to all those who took part.

I have to report that Bill Floyd, our oldest actor in both our productions, is back in QA hospital. Bill now needs more specialist care than can be provided for him at home and is waiting for this to be decided on. Please keep Bill and his family in your thoughts and prayers. Best wishes, Bill, from us all!

STOP PRESS Bill is now in a nursing home!

CAROL SINGING

HPP will be singing Carols in The Ship at Langstone on Christmas Eve. This is the third year we have been invited to do so and all monies collected go to HPP Limited. Do come along and start your Christmas in a joyful way. Singing starts at 2:30pm, but you could arrive earlier for lunch!
