

UPDATE Havant Passion Play has been busy fundraising, it never really stops! We have, however, also given ourselves the opportunity to worship together and were fortunate to be able to use St Faith's Church in Havant for our most recent Celebration Worship. A group of us gathered on Saturday afternoon, 18th November to reflect and worship together. Our thanks to Martin McGranaghan, John Burch and Mary Close for arranging the Service, to the musicians for leading us so ably and to Rev Vickie Morgan for leading the service. We will be having more Celebration Services in the New Year! Watch this space!

The Tea Dance took place on Friday 3rd November and although not well attended, it was enjoyed by those who were there! I'm told that not much dancing took place, but there was plenty of eating and chatting! Well Done!

Most recently we had a table at St Joseph's Christmas Bazaar. We had a good stream of children coming to ice biscuits and sold a fair selection of handmade gifts. Thanks to those who supported us.

Margaret manning the stall!

Pupils from  St Thomas More's school entertained us with a selection of Christmas songs.

Our second FASHION SHOW is due to take place on Wednesday 13th December 2017 7pm at Edinburgh Woollen Mills shop in Waterlooville. We have plenty of models, both men and women.

Please come and support us and maybe buy that new outfit for Christmas!
